SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Missing prerequisite

In case of failure to an examination required for the admission of the student, the application may be cancelled free of charge if the school is informed by registered letter within 8 days of the publication of results. A copy of the results must be attached to the registered letter. In the case of deferment, these conditions will not apply, no refunds will be granted.

Visa refusal

In case where the Visa is refused, the application may be cancelled free of charge if the school is informed by registered letter within 8 days of the official notification.

As an exception due to the administrative costs generated by CREA for the Visa application, any student who has obtained a Visa to study in Switzerland via the registration documents provided by our school will not be entitled to any refund in case of cancellation, regardless of the date of the request or the reason.

Termination clauses for force majeure

In case of force majeure acknowledged by the school (“... the term of force majeure includes extraordinary and unforeseeable circumstances beyond the control of the party, that occur outside of his sphere of activity and that are imposed from the outside with no resistance possible.”), the student will be allowed to terminate the contract he/she has with CREA but must pay the tuition fees for the semester in progress.

4. PARTIAL OR TOTAL INTERRUPTION OF THE PROGRAM

Any unauthorized absence of the student for more than four consecutive weeks will be considered by the school as a definitive termination of the enrolment. In case of a payment method in instalments, the total due costs will must be paid immediately.

In case of contract termination, CREA will immediately inform the Office Cantonal de la Population et des Migration accordingly.

5. INTERNSHIP

Students benefit from internship agreements for 5 months minimum and up to 8 months maximum within the same company. The search for an internship falls under the active responsibility of students, with ongoing support from the “Pôle Stages & Entreprises” at CREA. No internship agreement can be issued by CREA if the student has not yet ended the Master 2 course.

By my signature, I, _____, hereby accept the conditions in the admission contract and the attached "International Masters" admission regulations. I declare that I am going to enroll and undertake to pay the complete amount due.

“International Masters” admission regulations

Article 1: You can obtain the admission contract either on the school’s website, during a private meeting or during an information session.

Article 2: The candidate must fill in the admission contract in order to attend the evaluation interview. He/she will be advised of the date via email. If the candidate is unable to attend, he/she must contact CREA immediately. If the student fails to show up at the evaluation interview, the enrolment fees are not reimbursed.

Article 3: To receive the Master’s degree at the end of the course the candidate must hold a Bachelor degree or a qualification recognized as equivalent.

Article 4: The admission contract and its attachments must be sent by the deadline stipulated in order to guarantee access to the relevant course session. The entrance interview will only be deemed approved by the payment of the enrolment fee.

Article 5: The decision following the evaluation interview is communicated to the candidate within 20 working days. The decision is firm and irrevocable. In case of refusal, the enrolment fees are refunded within 4 weeks.

Article 6: The candidate can be admitted without conditions, or under the following conditions:

- fulfil a missing prerequisite
- attend another evaluation interview
- have an interview with another member of management

Article 7: A confirmed student who decides to cancel his enrolment, he must communicate his decision by a registered letter sent to CREA. The conditions for a cancellation of registration are mentioned in the admission contract.

Article 8: If a student notices an orientation error in his Master’s program choice, a change can only be made under the following conditions, within 2 weeks after the start of the course:

The student must present clear reasons to the management of the Master course he/she wants to join.

The change may be approved provided that the occupancy rate of the requested Master allows it.

Article 9: If a student repeats a year, the extra academic year will not be invoiced (apart from travel costs). The student is required to continue paying tuition fees according to the methods and due dates indicated in the admission contract signed by the different parties. The student will therefore have paid the entire tuition fee amount a year before the end of his/her course.

Article 10: The Diploma will be delivered to the student only once all tuition fees have been paid.

Article 11: Any student who takes steps to apply for a scholarship must read and sign CREA’s “scholarship application” document. The relevant instructions must be strictly adhered to. CREA may, without being obliged to, help the student in this process.

Article 12: All disputes are handled by CREA’s legal department and no right of appeal is possible regarding the admission process.
